TBP at PERCHVILLE FOR A LITTLE MURDER!

Tawas Bay Players are returning to Perchville Murder Mysteries with Slaughter on the Water.

Presented by TBP and the Knights of Columbus, the evening will begin with a delicious dinner as only the K of C do it. We'll have a Cruise Ship Surf and Turf Buffet featuring beef, chicken, fish, shrimp, potatoes, veggies, salads and dessert. After dinner, it's all aboard a luxury cruise ship to Hawaii. But when someone gets murdered, it's up to the audience to find the culprit. Guests are welcome to dress for the part, so we'll expect a lot of "Hawaiian Tourist" garb!

Slaughter on the Water (written and directed by Michal Jacot, with much backstage help from Laurie Jacot and Judy Quarters), will be presented Saturday, February 4 at Rushman Hall, 821 Newman Street, East Tawas. Doors Open at 6:00 p.m. Dinner at 6:30 p.m. Murder Mystery following dinner.

The cost is $25.00 ($20.00 with a 2023 Perchville button). Tickets are available at the door!

MURDER MYSTERY AT ALI'S UP NORTH

It seems like all TBP is doing lately is going around murdering people...!

We were asked to present a murder mystery evening by Ali's Up North, a nice restaurant in Au Gres. Michal Jacot put a cast together and did one of his authored shows, "The Michigan Murders", a whodunit based on our home state.

The audience enjoyed the show, and particularly liked the characters' Michigan pun names (Mitch Hogan, Sue Perriore, Hugh Ronn, etc.) When "Mackie Nawbridge" (see what I did there?) is murdered, everyone played detective and had a fun time.

The one evening of performing netted just over $400 for us and an invitation to come back and do another one.

Thanks to the fine actors who ad-libbed their way through the show: Duncan Weaver, Adam Davis, Tina Dalton, Tracee Lentz, Alan Dalton, Suzan Nemeth, Michal Jacot, and Laurie Jacot! You all did a great job!

April/May CC deadline:
March 20
See you then!
