*It's My Wedding,
Dear Grandpa*

Comedy by Michal Jacot

Presented through special arrangement with Eldridge Plays and Musicals

Control freak Amber is getting married to easygoing Scott, and she's going nuts trying to organize the perfect wedding. Her siblings aren't helping, and her pushy mother won't listen to her. Then Mom comes up with an inspired idea: a double wedding with Amber and Scott, and with crabby Grandpa and his slightly senile girlfriend Bonnie. Can Amber's family help her learn to relax and enjoy life? This show is filled with funny lines and sight gags that will leave your audience laughing all the way to the altar!

The Subject Was Roses

Drama by Frank D. Gilroy

Presented by special arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Samuel French, Inc.
www.concordtheatricals.com

It is May of 1946 and Timmy Cleary has come home from the war to his estranged parents, John and Nettie. As their reunion promises a return to life as it never was, John gives up a lucrative business opportunity. He attends a ball game with his son and grudgingly, at Timmy's request, returns with roses for Nettie in an insincere attempt at reconciliation. The three attempt to recapture the past but the ideal is shattered amidst recriminations. The next morning Timmy announces he is leaving once again, and husband and wife must face the reality of life with only their memories.

Leaving Iowa

Comedy by Tim Clue & Spike Manton

Presented by arrangement with Dramatic Publishing

This is a hilarious, family-friendly comedy that is a toast to the idealism and character of parents from the "greatest generation," and a little roast of their dedication to the family road trip. Don Browning, a middle-aged writer, returns home and decides to finally take his father's ashes to his childhood home. But when Don discovers Grandma's house is now a grocery store, he begins traveling across Iowa for a proper resting place for his father. This road trip shifts smoothly from the present to Don's memories of the annual, torturous vacations of his childhood. Leaving Iowa is guaranteed to have you laughing and remembering the childhood vacations you tried to forget!
