Murder Mystery Fundraiser - Buckhorn Oct. 3

WE Players use of Hudgins Hall for auditions 9/30 & 10/1

Correspondence: Invitation for a Trivia Night at The Collective 11/7. Tracee agreed to get a team together. Jolene motioned to have TBP sponsor a team for $125. Alan seconded. Motion passed.

Treasurer's Report: Judy shared the treasurer's report. Jolene motioned to approve the report, Pat seconded. Motion passed.

Membership: 78 members.

Past President's Report: Ed continues to work on the tech booth, making it easier to operate. Ed did a final run thru of the project list, stating what has been done or what needs to be done. Jeff will contact Quota about the hearing system.

OLD BUSINESS

Adjudication for fall show: Larry Nielson will be the adjudicator for Camp-O-Chemo. CTAM is covering the fee. Judy will ask if the selected hotel would be interested in an ad in the program. Jolene motioned to cover the hotel fee of $81. Tracee seconded. Motion passed.

Capital Campaign - Leadership needed: We need to have people within the community willing to be part of the committee. Jeff will work with Betsy to establish a committee.

Handyman: Tracee motioned to move Newman Street door to the parking lot door and replace Newman Street door, paying up to $1600. Suzan seconded. Motion passed.

Board Outside Membership Strawman: Still looking for non-members to fill possible positions.

WE Players Transition Team: Both organizations are still meeting to finalize agreement. Betsy has been given a written proposal to review.

Holy Family Off-Site Location: Holy Family staff/students will be arriving on Oct. 6. Judy is working with Stacey Mochty to finalize the time.

Camp-O-Chemo. Judy said things are progressing very well. She has received a lot of community support with donations, props, etc.

Chillers. Alan said a cast has been selected. He and Eric T. are "keeping it simple."

NEW BUSINESS

Michal/Laurie Jacot: Murder Mystery on 10/3 is almost sold out. They are interested in doing another one at the theatre. Just requesting a list of possible dates that wouldn't conflict with existing schedule.

Backup Plan for Fall 2027 Mama Mia: Jolene said she has a production team in place. A deadline of November was set to choose a replacement.

After Hours: Suzan has requested TBP supply some snacks for the Chamber's After Hours that is being held at the playhouse on 9/29 from 5:30 - 7:30.

New Entrance Rugs: Judy requested that the entrance rugs be replaced to preserve the flooring/carpet. Jolene motioned to pay up to $100 for those replacements. Pat seconded. Motion passed.

Main Auditorium Air Conditioner Failure Options: Quotes were received from Colvins, Mr. Heat, and Goyette with various possibilities. Quotes ranged from $4800 - $12,600. Due to cooler weather, we have time to make a decision.

LAST MINUTE AGENDA ITEMS

Judy wanted to share a reminder that the curtains that are stored at Seymours need to be moved soon.
